Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 18 November 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

I. Group I, claim(s) 1 and 3-8 (in part), drawn to use of L-dopa for the prophylaxis of psychoses as well as for the treatment of diseases which are caused by disrupted tyrosine transport or disrupted tyrosine decarboxylase.

II. Group II, claim(s) 2 and 3-8 (in part), drawn to use of L-dopa for the production of pharmaceuticals for the prophylaxis of psychoses as well as for the treatment of diseases which are caused by disrupted tyrosine transport or disrupted tyrosine decarboxylase.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the invention of Group I is disclosed in Gerlach et al. (Psychopharmacologia (Berl.), Vol. 44, Fasc. 1 (1975)). In particular, Gerlach et al. teach that L-Dopa has a good therapeutic effect in Parkinsonian patients (see entire document). Therefore, the use of L-dopa for the prophylaxis of psychoses is known in the art.

As a result, no special technical feature exists among the different groups of invention because Invention I fails to make a contribution over the prior art due to a corresponding lack of novelty (i.e. the use of Invention I is already known in and therefore anticipated by the prior art). In conclusion, there is a lack of unity of inventions, as Inventions I and II do not relate to, and are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

1. a disease which is caused by disrupted tyrosine transport or disrupted tyrosine decarboxylase.
2. species of enzyme inhibitor.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species of one disease which is caused by disrupted tyrosine transport or disrupted tyrosine decarboxylase and one enzyme inhibitor to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
